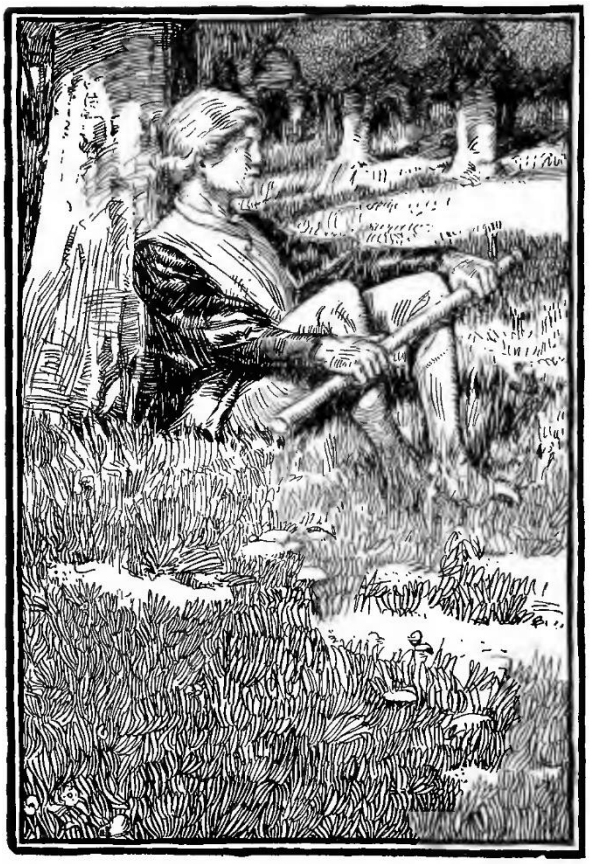
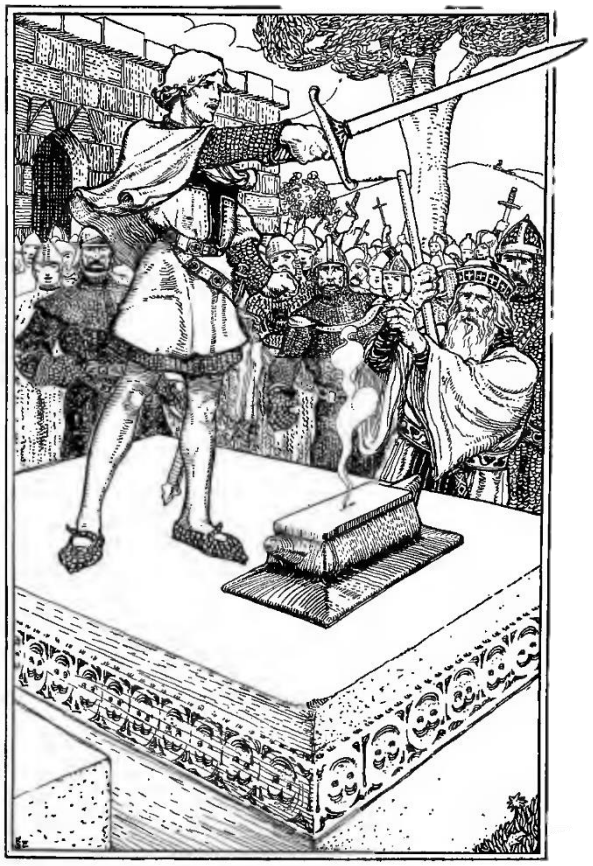
King Arthur and His Knights of the Round Table

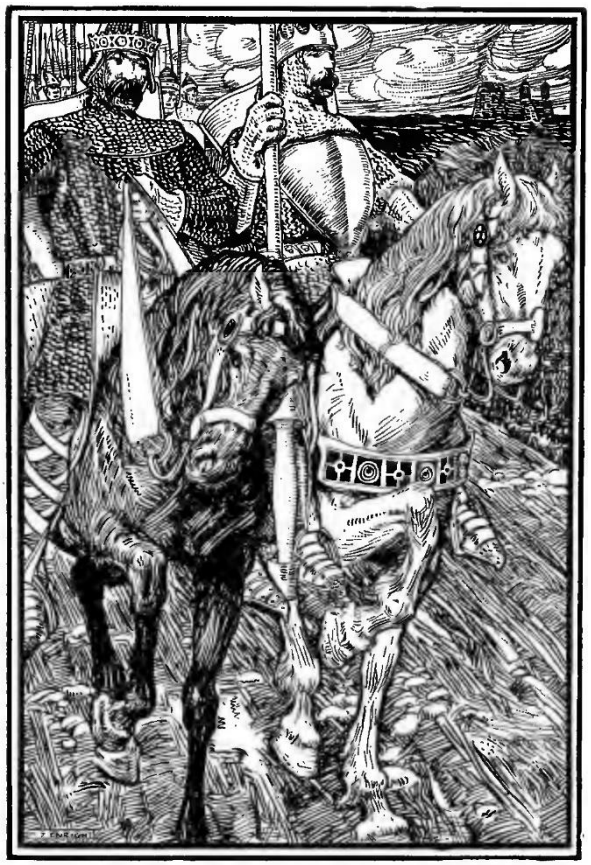


“All about him old oaks stood like giant guardians”



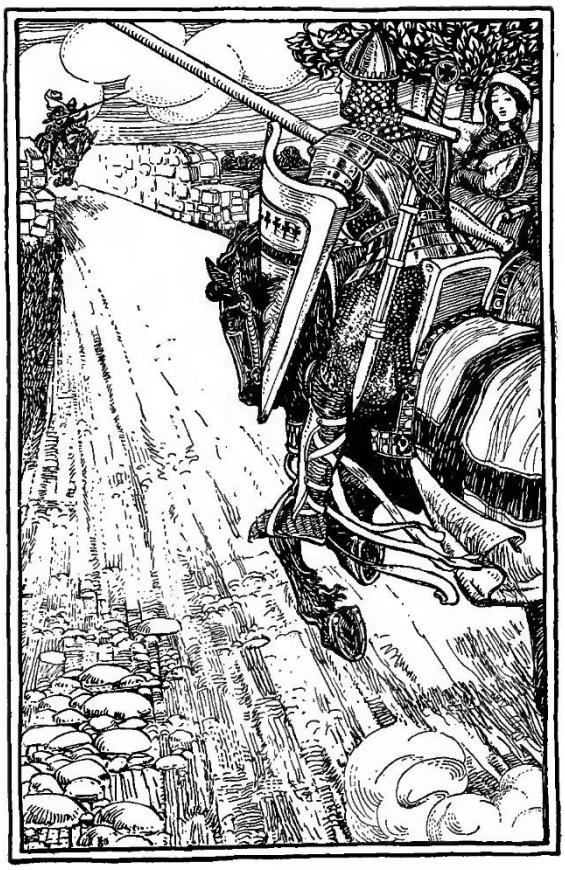
“He hardly more than touched the sword”

Arthur and the Lady of the Lake



King Bors and King Ban

“Arthur saw Guinevere bending over the wall”

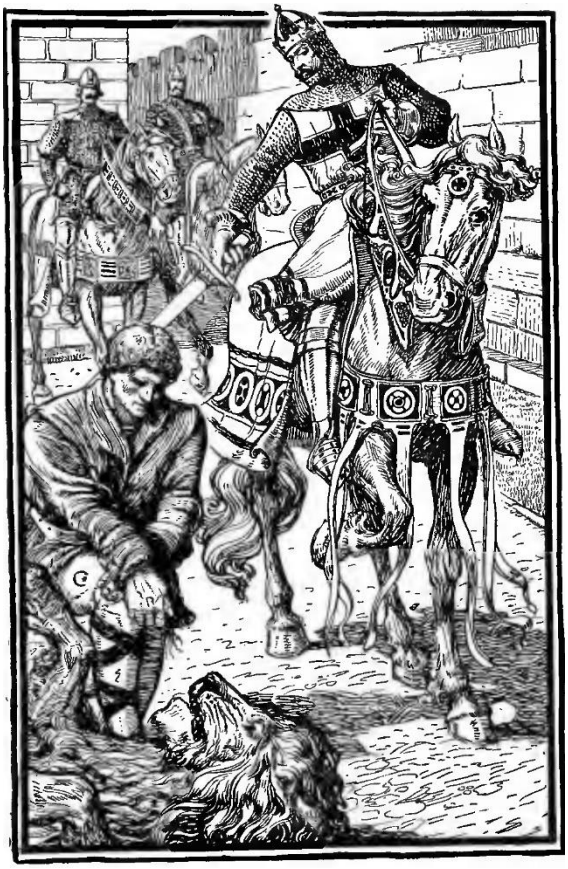


“Gareth rode at him fiercely”

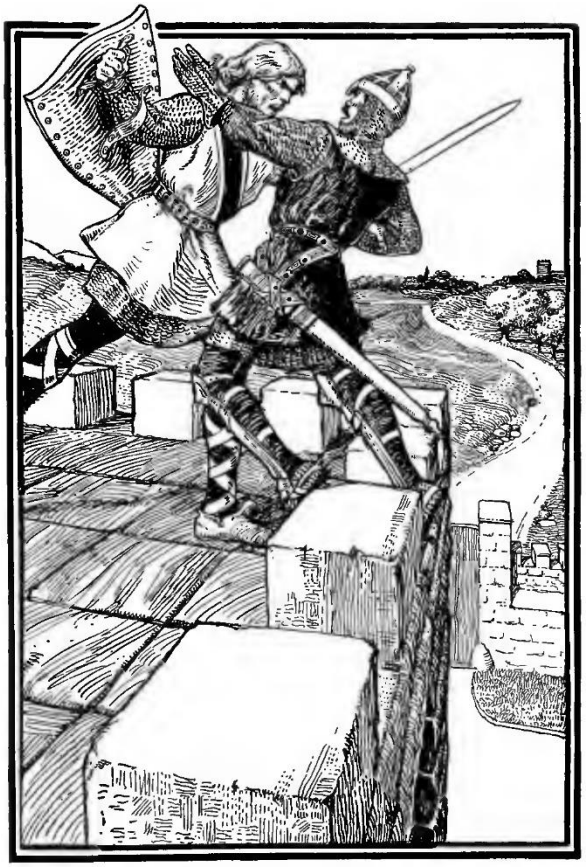
“He dismounted and poured water into the fountain”

"They fought till their breath failed"

"King Arthur raising his hand for silence"



"The king touched him lightly with his sword"



"He pushed him until he was but a step from the edge"

"He struck so fiercely the bottom fell out"

"She staid near it all day long in the turret"

"And across it slowly moved the Holy Grail"
